4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents.

5. The successful bidder shall, at the close of the sale, deposit in cash or Government Promissory Notes, endorsed to the Deputy Commissioner a sum equal to one-fourth of the total rental ; should he fail to do so, the exclusive privilege will at once be resolved.

6. Re-sales effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will have no claim to any profit accruing at the re-sale. In the event of loss the deficiency between the amount of his bid at the original sale and the amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

7. The successful bidder shall pay the balance of the rental within fifteen days from the date of confirmation of the sale, failing which, he will forfeit the amount already deposited and the exclusive privilege of collecting the bark will be liable to be re-sold at his risk.

8. The purchaser of the exclusive privilege shall, within three days from the date on which confirmation of the sale is communicated to him, execute and sign an agreement on proper stamp paper binding himself to observe the conditions published in para 8.

9. The successful bidder is required to conform to the following conditions—

(1) Not to cut stems under one year old.
(2) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.
(3) To keep accounts showing the quantity of the bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Deputy Commissioner or by any officer deputed by him.
(4) To obtain passes for consignments of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the Deputy Commissioner.
(5) To remove out of the limits of the taluks leased out to him, all bark cut, collected or stored, before the end of June 1899.
(6) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled and all the unexported bark to be confiscated.
(7) Tangadi shrubs shall not be cut for the sake of the leaves as manure or for firewood or any other purpose except the bark.
